Reagan Expected

Regents Will Meet At UCSD

The Regents of the University of California will meet on the University's local campus starting today.

The first of the Regents' meetings is taking place today on the main floor of the gymnasium at UCSD. Gov. Ronald Reagan is expected sometime late tomorrow.

The Regents' Committee on Grounds and Buildings meets today at 10 a.m. This will be followed at 11 a.m. by a meeting of the Committee on the Educational Policy of the University. The Committee on Finance will meet at about 2:45 p.m.

The Regents will consider personnel, litigation and such matters in executive session on Friday morning. An open session, to receive a report on investment policy, is scheduled for 11 a.m. An open session will begin at 1:45 p.m. tomorrow.

The gymnasium will be transformed into a convention hall for the purposes of the meeting. Members of the press will find home quarters in the wrestling room, one floor below the Regents' meeting area.

The major problem facing the Regents will be to determine how money can be obtained to build University facilities throughout the state which were halted by the ure of the $2,800,000 bond issue in the last election. The Regents will have to determine the source of financial aid and the priority of various projects.

Art Museum

Shows Rentals

A music box construction made of antique parts, a sculpted wooden table with representational objects to move around, a six-foot wall tapestry made in Mexico and 200 other works of art will be available for rental when the La Jolla Art Museum's new art rental collection goes on display Sunday.

Gallery patrons may attend the 5 to 8:30 p.m. reception celebrating the opening Sunday.

Decorators Can

Enter Contest

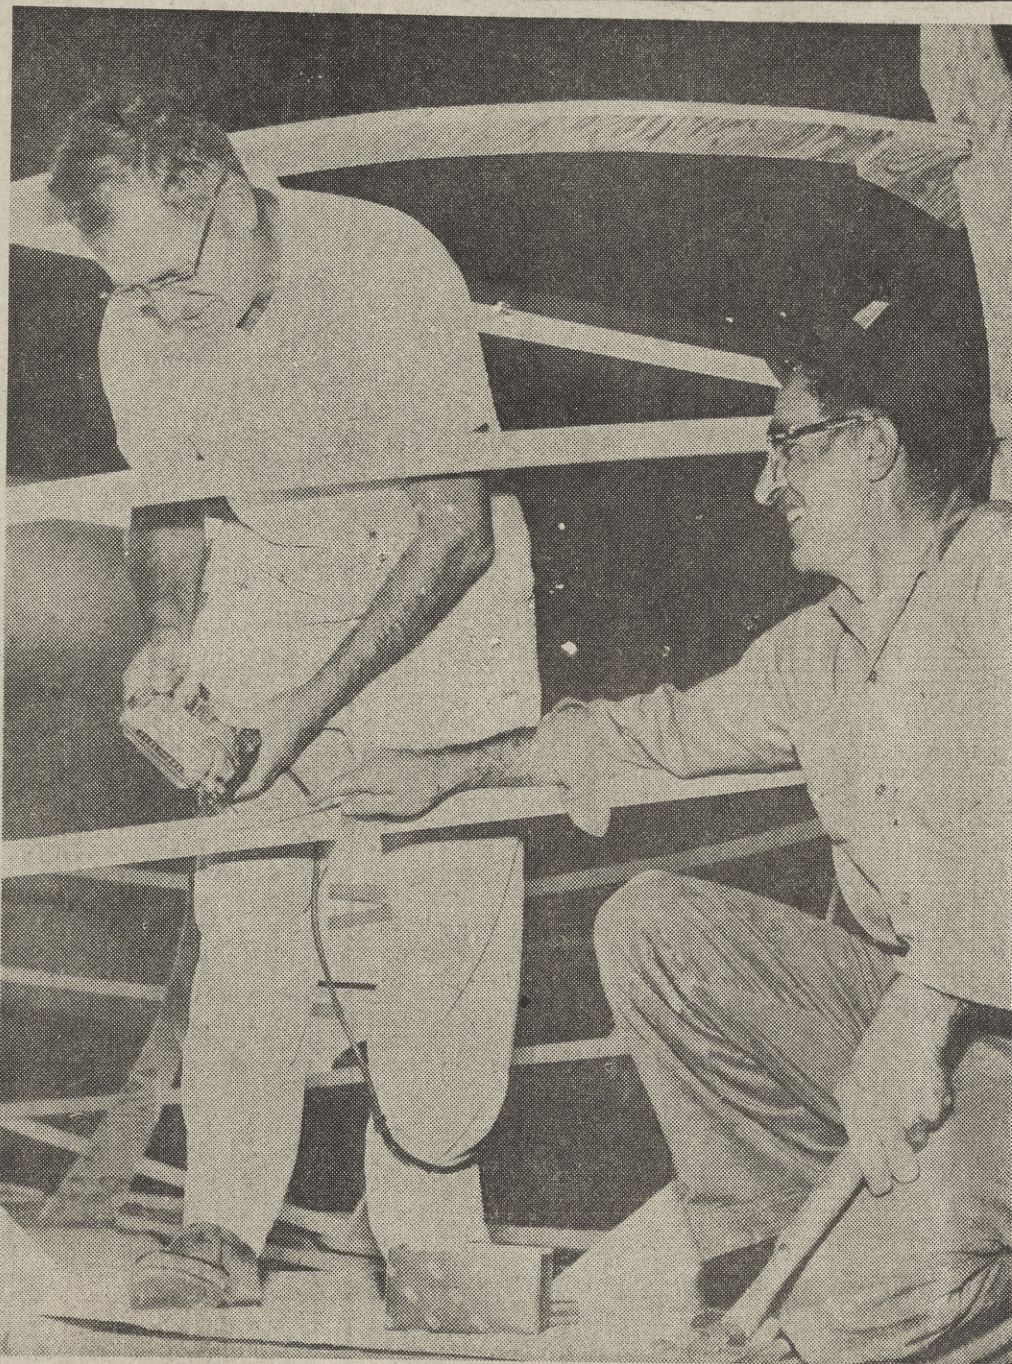

It's still not too late to enter the palm tree Christmas decorating contest sponsored by the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce.

The contest, involving palm trees along Newport Avenue from Abbott Street to Sunset Cliffs Boulevard, will feature hand-made Yule ornaments.

Mrs. Wendy Reynolds, chairman of the contest committee, said competition is open to schools, church groups, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other organizations.

She said decorations must be in place by Nov. 28, and judging will be held Nov. 30.

Further information may be obtained by calling 224-1611 or 222-3466.

TROPHY CONTENDER—It's only in the skeleton stage in this photo, but the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce float will be more than ready to hold its own Sunday when it competes in the Mother Goose Parade in El Cajon. Shown working on the framework are Tom Smith (left), who is operating a sabre saw, and Eddie Ribeiro, float designer and chief carpenter. Smith is a member of the Chamber's board of directors. The local entry is being assembled in the Myers and Stuart brake shop on Cable Street. It has won its division four consecutive years and is aiming for a sweepstakes prize this time. Mrs. Mary Giglito is chairman of the float committee.

BROTT NAMED PRESIDENT

Peninsula Chamber Elects Officer Slate

Clark Brott, 34, Ocean Beach businessman and one of the nation's leading anthropologists, has been elected president of the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce.

A dynamic speaker and Chamber member for two years, Brott was named president by the board of directors Tuesday night at a meeting in Margaret Franklin School. He will succeed Charles Bahde.

Other officers selected were Tom Arnold, first vice president; Marian Pena, second vice president; Gloria Crowningshield, secretary, and William Pigg, treasurer.

The new slate will be installed at a dinner Jan. 19 at the Kona Kai Club. Mayor Frank Curran will be installing officer.

Brott is vice president of Charlie Brown's Windjammer at 2265 Bacon St. He was curator of the San Diego Museum of Man for seven years and until recently was chief curator.

The president-elect, a native of Willoughby, Ohio, spent most of his childhood in San Diego and Whittier. After graduating from Whittier High School, Brott attended the University of Alaska and in 1956 received a BA degree in anthropology.

He took post-graduate studies at Rheinische-Friedrich-Wilhelms University in Bonn, Germany; the University of Washington and University of New Mexico.

Brott was editor of two college yearbooks and one college newspaper and in 1956 was listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities."

Before joining the staff of the San Diego Museum of Man, he served three years as a curatorial assistant at the University of Alaska museum and for two years was director of the State Capitol Museum in Olympia, Wash.

During 1957-60, Brott served in the U.S. Air Force, attaining the rank of first lieutenant. He was stationed NAMED TO TOP POST—Charles Bahde (right), president of the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, discusses future plans with his successor, Clark Brott. Brott, elected Tuesday night, will assume his new duties at an installation dinner Jan. 19. Bahde will remain on the board of directors.

Four judges have been named for the "paint a trash can" contest which will be sponsored Dec. 8 by the Beautify Ocean Beach Committee of the Ocean Beach Town Council.

Mrs. Mary Strelchun, committee chairman, said the contest will be conducted on the Newport Avenue parking lots of the Silver Gate Savings & Loan Association and the Ocean Beach Branch, Bank of America.

Registration will be held at 1:30 p.m. and judging will start at 2 p.m. Prizes will be offered in three divisions, 12 years and under, 13 to 19 years and 20 years and over.

Prizes have been donated by Elmer's Variety Store, Lew's Department Store, Don Heller Clothing, Nati's Mexican Restaurant, Pete's Pizza Parlor and Zeke's Chicken Restaurant.

Day For Irish

Planned Sunday By OB Baptists

Worship services honoring Ireland will be held Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Ocean Beach, 1969 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., according to Rev. Hugh W. Power, pastor.

"We are placing particular emphasis on the Irish contribution to our social and religious cultures," Rev. Power said. "This is the fourth in a series of Heritage Sunday programs, recognizing some of the many backgrounds from which Americans come."

Rev. Wallace Bell from Ireland will be the speaker at the worship service.

Following, there will be a social time in the Church Fellowship Hall, featuring an Irish folk singer, films of Ireland and refreshments typical of Ireland.

Sunday morning Rev. Power's sermon topic will be "The Principle of Thanksgiving" at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services.

Thanksgiving morning the men of the church will host a breakfast for over 50 servicemen, followed by a brief Thanksgiving service, open to the public at 10 a.m. Members of the church family plan to take the men to their homes for the day.

Local Elks Hold Charity Ball

The North Shores Elks Lodge No. 2150 will hold their Annual Charity Ball on Saturday at the lodge hall at 1030 Grand Ave. Dancing to the music of the Notables will begin at 9 p.m. with a gourmet buffet dinner to be served at 11 p.m.

The proceeds of the charity ball make it possible to distribute food baskets, clothing and gifts to needy children and families in our area in keeping with the cardinal principle of the Order, which is charity.

Tickets can be purchased at the door by Elks and their guests, or reservations can be made by calling 488-4050.

Plan Approved Unanimously By Councilmen

By CHRISTY GREGG
Sentinel Staff Writer

A vague probability three years ago, the Peninsula Community Plan, became a resounding reality Tuesday when it won unanimous approval of the City Council at a public hearing.

After almost two hours of hearing proponents of the plan and objections to one aspect of it, the Council voted, 8-0, to accept the final draft and added it to the city's General Plan.

A rousing burst of applause greeted the decision. Previously, at a public hearing Oct. 9, the 20-year project gained the unanimous recommendation of the city Planning Commission.

The only dispute arose over the single-family classification of the Steiger plot, 15 acres of land owned by Mrs. Juanita Steiger in the vicinity of Talbot and Canon Streets.

Mrs. Steiger's legal representative and a Point Loma realtor urged that the plot be designated multi-family or medium density.

Councilmen, however, voted to retain the parcel's R-1 designation after Acting Planning Director James L. Goff pointed out that the community plan was primarily a guideline and did not preclude future rezoning.

Headed by Mrs. Helen Fane, president of Peninsula, Inc., more than 10 persons urged adoption of the plan. It was prepared by Peninsula after more than two years of study, and encompasses Point Loma, Loma Portal and Ocean Beach.

Mrs. Fane told the council Peninsula, Inc., was the outgrowth of a planning committee organized in the summer of 1965 by the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce.

"Our present population is 44,000," she said. "We know our population is growing. The increase must be planned for, so that what has attracted us all to this community is enhanced, not lost, for us, for the city, for visitors and for our future populations."

Praising the Planning Department for its cooperation, Mrs. Fane noted that information about the program's progress was widely distributed and that Peninsula discussed the subject at numerous meetings of civic, business, and church organizations and women's clubs.

"Through this exposure, local problems, possible solutions and opposition were brought to our attention continually," she added. "The thrashing out of problems with the rest of the community as we went along shaped the plan. And this plan reflects convictions of a far wider group than Peninsula, Inc. We are indebted to all the other people in the community who have questioned us and given us suggestions."

Mrs. Fane said the plan "does not rezone anything. It does not assure immediate physical change."

"The Peninsula Community Plan evaluates existing conditions in Point Loma, Loma Portal and Ocean Beach. It considers immediate problems by presenting facts to be considered. It's a long range physical guide for the future. It's a flexible document with a basic planning concept for the area."

Others who urged adoption of the Plan were Charles Bahde, immediate past president of Peninsula, and president of the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce; Jack Wardlaw Jr., member of Peninsula's board of directors, and Dan Rowland, second vice president of Peninsula.

Also, Ned Titlow, immediate past president of the Ocean Beach Town Council; Mrs. Fran Hanks, the Council's executive director; Billy Riley, the Peninsula Chamber's second vice president, and Mrs. Betty Tate, of Point Loma Village Beautiful.

Youth Saved From Anti-Rabies Injections

Thanks to an article that appeared on the front page of the Peninsula News, Samuel Zauri won't have to undergo anti-rabies injections.

Samuel, 8, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Zauri, of 4420 Orchard Ave.

Sunday's Peninsula News reported that the boy faced anti-rabies shots unless the large standard poodle which bit him was located.

Mrs. Dallas Campbell, of 1032 Moana Dr., read the article and noted that the description fitted her poodle, which had been turned loose by some youngsters and wound up in the City Pound.

She immediately telephoned Mrs. Zauri and confirmed that the poodle had been immunized against rabies, meaning Samuel wouldn't have to take the painful injections.

"I can't thank The Sentinel enough," said Mrs. Zauri.

New Principal Will Be Honored At Luncheon

George Parry, new principal at Point Loma High School, will be honored today at a "get acquainted" luncheon sponsored by the Point Loma PTA.

The event will start at 12:30 p.m. in the faculty dining room. Among dignitaries invited are Councilman Sam Loftin, Capt. William R. Boehm, commanding officer of the Naval Electronics Laboratory Center, and Dr. John R. Ford, of the State Board of Education.

Parry, a graduate of San Diego State, assumed the top post at Point Loma in September, succeeding Don Giddings. He also has been principal at Crawford High and Wilson Junior High.

High School Youths Present Service Sunday

The Senior High School students of Westminster Presbyterian Church will present a special Thanksgiving liturgical service of worship at 9:30 and 11 on Sunday. The church is located on Talbot Street at Canon on Point Loma.

The church will be decorated in fall colors with banners and collages on Thanksgiving and current themes. The worship service will include special music, original readings, short talks, and will feature two modern dance numbers by the entire group in costume.

A special Communion emphasizing the Communion Table as a dinner table will be a part of the unique worship service. Working with the group are sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wartes, and Pastor Mikel Taxer.

Council Meets Next Year

The next general meeting of the Ocean Beach Town Council will be held sometime in January, Mrs. Fran Hanks, executive director, reported yesterday.

Previously, the Council had been scheduling a general meeting on the third Thursday of each month.

Four general meetings are being planned next year, Mrs. Hanks said, and the sessions will include more programming and more community participation.

Homecoming

Pep Rally Highlights Festivities

A bonfire and pep rally in the parking lot adjacent to the School of Law will highlight tomorrow's homecoming activities at California Western.

The rally is set for 7 p.m. and will start with a candlelight procession from Capriello Hall to the parking lot.

Last night's program featured a "Fiesta Night" dance, complete with mariachi band. The four candidates for homecoming queen, Cindy Spiller, Marilyn Ames, Janet Jones and Ginny Dewey, were introduced.

Launching Saturday's schedule, Dr. R. Carroll Cannon, campus provost, will speak to parents at 10 a.m. in Boney Hall. At 11 a.m. there will be judging of house decorations designed by student organizations.

At 2 p.m. Cal Western's football team will meet Sacramento State at Balboa Stadium. The homecoming queen and her court will be crowned in pre-game ceremonies.

The celebration will wind up Saturday at 7 p.m. with a dinner dance sponsored by the Associated Students. It will be held at Atlantis Restaurant.

Point Lomans

Will Present 'The Crucible'

The advanced class of the Point Loma High School drama department will stage three presentations of Arthur Miller's "The Crucible" in the school auditorium next month.

Showings on Dec. 4 and 5 will start at 7:30 p.m. and the Dec. 6 presentation will start at 8 p.m. Tickets, costing $1, will be on sale at the auditorium.

Cast in the leading roles are Danny Lloyd, Linda Jensen, Linda Pekin and Ron Angel.

C. Gayle Todd, drama teacher, is the director. Student director is Susie Saunders.

Handwriting Analysis

Dear Mrs. Whiting, What's the MATTER with me? I don't seem to do anything right. My dad wants me to get a job, but I don't even know what I want to do. I probably couldn't hold down a job anyway. I don't like to feel this way, but I tell it like it is. What can I do?

First of all, Tony, this doesn't have to be "how it is." Right now your big, fat "I's" are in your way. You wrote me six lines and used seven capital "I's," all of them wrapped in a soft knot. Your lines sink downward: depression. Other self-pity points show in your writing.

It's time for you to get out of your security blanket and get into gear for going!

Actually, there are more than marshmallow strokes in your writing. Notice how your lower loops come down with a determined thrust. You also separate your lines with clear thinking. These are constructive, "go" features. OK. Now let's add a little more hi-octane.

I probably but I tell.

Your "4's" are weak. You barely use enough go to make it across the stem. The upper area of writing where "t's" are crossed and "i's" are dotted shows how a writer feels about his goals in life.

You have plenty of "now-power" in your middle zone, but the upper zone is bogged down in too wide loops and too many left tending strokes. You are so involved with "how it is" that you haven't tried for what it can be.

Do this: Several times a day write: "Life is a grindstone; Whether it polishes me up or grinds me down depends on what I'm made of."

Each time you come to a "4" cross, cross it with vigor. Make that cross cover at least three nearby letters. Sign the quotation. Underline your signature from left to right with a strong, upslanting stroke.

Instead of writing your usual embryo-like capital "I," try printing it like the Roman number I. And as you do all this, plan in your mind what kind of work you want to be doing 10 years from now. You may change those plans, but be specific and positive as you think it through.

Write me from time to time and we'll compare your handwriting for progress. Good luck.

For an analysis of the secrets hidden in your handwriting, send at least three lines of writing and your signature to Eldene Whiting, P.O. Box 9234, San Diego, Calif. 92109. Include $2 and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for a word check list and a full page of personal analysis. All correspondence is prompt, personal and confidential.

Direct-Stadium Buses Run To Football Game

Direct-stadium buses will start their runs at 11:30 a.m. to Sunday's Charger-New York Jets game. Game time is 1 p.m.

There are five different locations for direct-stadium buses. One bus, only, leaves the Clairemont Mesa Boulevard and Luna Street intersection with a stop at the Handyman parking lot where other buses will leave at frequent intervals. Other locations are: County Administration Center south parking lot at Pacific Hwy. and Ash Street; Horton Plaza, downtown (Route "D") via Fifth Avenue will pick up passengers to University Avenue; College Grove Shopping Center Parking Lot at College and Highway 94; parking lot 1/4 block west of Euclid and Logan Avenues.

The special stadium fare of 50 cents enables a fan to travel from any point on the San Diego Transit network, changing buses as required. Patrons are advised to tell the driver their destination is the stadium when they pay the 50 cent one-way fare. The driver will issue a stadium card which entitles fans to unlimited transfers in order to connect with direct-stadium buses.

A shuttle bus will run along Fairmount to the stadium, picking up passengers between University and Meade Avenues. Buses will return to the same locations, immediately following the game.

PET PATTER

THE SHAGGIEST DOG
By MERZE M. SEEBURGER

"Oh how nice it is to have A soft, warm coat in winter, But woods and fields have burrs to snag

And through our fur it's hard to see."

So many people have asked me about shaggy dogs. Are they as good for pets as those with shorter hair or not. It all depends.

The shaggiest dogs come from colder or mountainous regions where a warm coat was very desirable. Most of them are working dogs, like the various sheep dogs, who look after the flocks, or guard dogs, who protect against robbers or marauding animals. Some of them have been working companions of explorers in Arctic and Antarctic regions. Many are devoted pets of their masters.

The shaggiest dog of all is probably the Old English Sheep Dog, whose outer coat is so long and thick it even covers his face. I always wonder how the English Sheep Dog sees out, and feel as if he should have a Seeing Eye dog to help him. But he CAN see and he doesn't need a helper. His hair can be spun into yarn and woven or knitted if you wish. How about a scarf or mittens from your pet's hair?

Another very shaggy dog is the Komondor, a large white dog who has been known in Hungary as a sheep herder and guard dog for more than 1,000 years and now is achieving much renown in the United States. Another shaggy Hungarian dog that is winning distinction here is the Puli.

It is a shepherd dog

Prospective Parents Can Adopt Two Or More Youths At A Time

Miss Jane Redwine, chief of Adoption Services of San Diego County, today released the current issue of The Young Hopefuls describing some family groups of children available for adoption.

She said Adoption Services keeps family groups together, and needs families interested in adopting two or more children at one time.

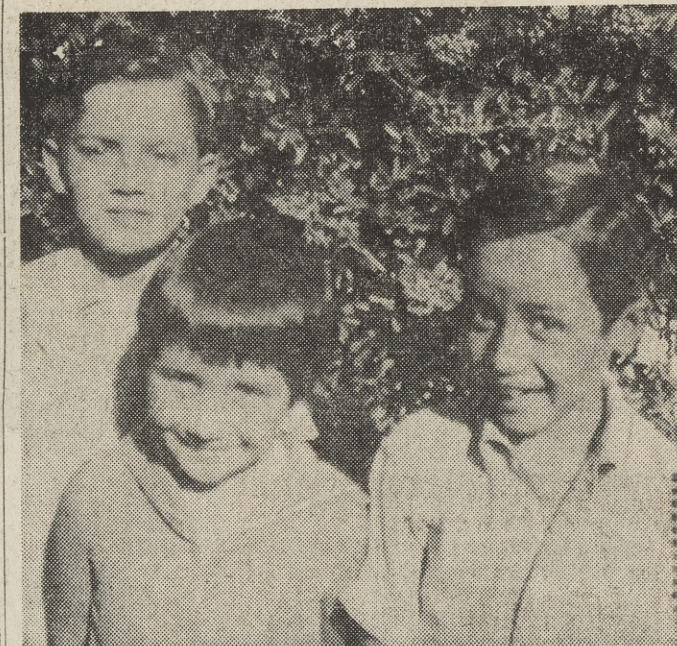

The Agency invites applications from couples who already have children as well as childless couples. Couples who have grown children may be interested in a "second family." Home ownership, large income, savings accounts and citizenship are not required. There is no waiting list for these children.

Because of past experiences many of the children are afraid to form a close relationship because they do not want to be hurt or rejected again. They need time to know they are wanted and loved.

Miss Redwine said "families for the older child must not expect to receive love and satisfaction immediately, but they need to be able to wait for the child to express these feelings." As a child learns to trust his new parents, these feelings and satisfactions will be forthcoming. In time they will truly belong to one another.

In addition to homes for older children and family groups, Miss Redwine said families are also needed for newborn infants. Adoption Services of San Diego County has offices located at 1140 Union Street in San Diego and 1041 E. Vista Way in Vista. Information may be obtained by telephoning 234-3281 or in North County 724-8881.

PARENTS NEEDED—Frank 9, Billy 7, and Helen 6, are attractive children with good health and intelligence. They need parents who can understand that a child's expression of love is worth waiting for. If you are interested in adoption, please call Adoption Services of San Diego County—234-3281.

Alessio Heads County Heart Campaign For '69

Frank D. (Bud) Alessio, only be accomplished, of course, through the support of every concerned San Diegan." Woltman is senior vice president of the U.S. National Bank.

"We're delighted to have such able men heading our '69 campaign," Woltman said. "Both realize how vital it is to our community's health for us to continue to expand the many research and educational programs, and other community services of the Heart Association. This can

Shell Club Talk Features Mexico Coast

"In Pursuit of Seashells... Ramblings along the West Mexican Coast," will be the last in a series of lectures presented by the San Diego Shell Club this year.

Guest lecturer Dr. Donald Shasky, one of California's foremost conchologists, will speak at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 21 in the first floor auditorium of the Museum of Natural History in Balboa Park.

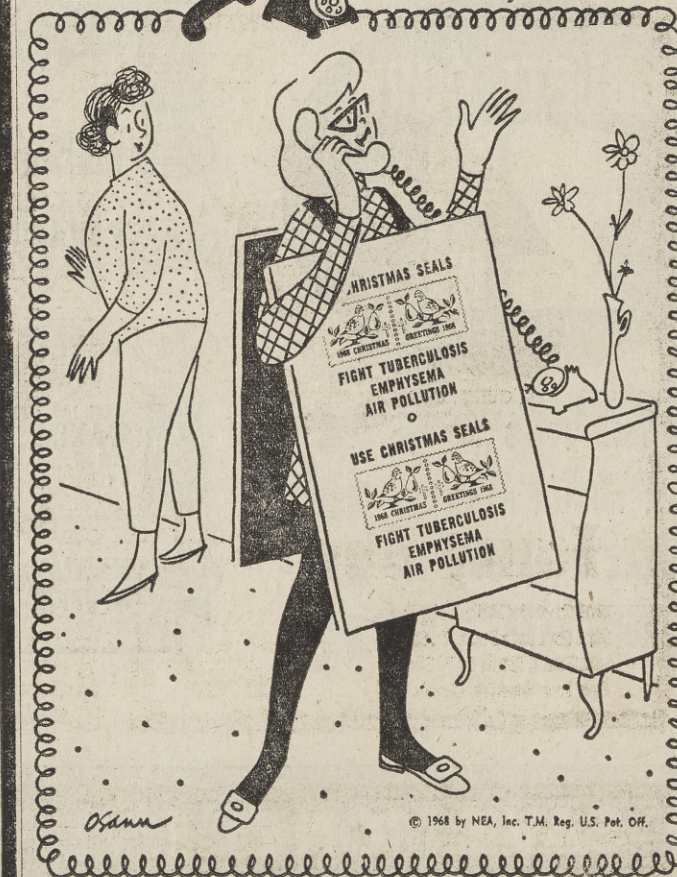

The illustrated lecture will include color slides of a recent three week diving and dredging expedition off the coast of Manzanillo, Mexico. The public is invited.

This type of person is conservative in his opinions and politics, prefers dark colors, seldom gains weight, and practically never changes his mind!

What Could Cancer Cost You?

Suffering and death are not the only burdens cancer imposes on its victims. Financial loss — often financial disaster — overtakes the family when disease strikes — heavy hospital, medical and surgical costs, and many "extras." The latest scientific methods used in successful treatment such as chemotherapy, cobalt, and other radiation techniques involve heavy expense. And there are other costly incidentals—laboratory tests, oxygen, blood plasma, anesthesia, prosthetic devices, special drugs and medicines, at-home nursing, ambulances — all of which add to the financial strain.

WILDING'S WANDERINGS

Tiny Tim And Twiggies— That's The London Of 1968

(This is the second in a series of reflections on England from Mrs. Mary Wilding of Pacific Beach who is in London with her husband and eight children for a year. Dr. Wilding is a professor at San Diego State College on sabbatical leave.)

By MARY WILDING

The more I see of London the more I'm convinced that you could live here forever and not see it all. Every back street has a charm, a flavor of its own.

Piccadilly is bright, garish, and very exciting. It's the theatre district and the heart of London's night life. Strip joints and gambling casinos abound, sandwiched in between dignified theatres running "Man of La Mancha," "Hadrian VII," "King Lear," and Tiny Tim in concert at the Royal Albert Hall.

Oxford Street is the shopping district — fast-paced, well-dressed and attractive people. Department stores have been modernized without losing their quaintness.

At Selfridge's, open-mouthed fish squiggle around Greek columns, while half-draped renaissance virgins in frieze beckon you through the main entrance. It's here you see sleek young women in minis and handsome leather boots, and men in bell-bottom trousers and tight

Edwarian jackets with pink shirts and purple ties.

The male mannequins on display wear long, wildly curling wigs, while sad tubercular "Twiggies" in grotesque poses lunge at you from shop windows. An occasional shill with an open suitcase on legs and one eye out for a bobby tries to entice the crowd to buy his authentic gold watch smuggled in from Switzerland, for only five quid.

A short walk from Oxford Street takes you to Grosvenor Square. Here is the diplomatic world—bowler hats, black suits with vests, and proud moustaches. The square is peaceful and refined.

On the east looms the massive American Embassy, facing across the park the former headquarters of General Eisenhower during World War II, thus giving rise to the name "Little America." The park itself is the setting for a most impressive memorial to Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

On either side is a fountain and an inscription of the Four Freedoms—Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Belief, Freedom from Want, and Freedom from Fear. In the center stands the proud figure, in flowing cape and walking stick, of the man who was our President during the war years, while on his head, most incongruously, a live pidgeon stands guard.

We chose a beautiful day to watch the changing of the Guard, who unfortunately wore long gray winter overcoats covering their colorful red. Intrigued by the enormity of the Queen's residence, six-year old daughter remarked, "She must really have a lot of children!"

Her much wiser seven-year old sister explained, "But look at all the soldiers who have to live there too. Besides, she gets a lot of company . . ."

We walked along the lake through St. James Park to the Horse Guards Parade, past the spot where Charles II lost his head, on to Whitehall (Ministry of Defense) and No. 10 Downing Street which was much larger and more impressive than I had expected.

We paused for a drink at a fountain provided for our convenience by the Greater London Drinking Fountain and Cattle Trough Society, then proceeded to Westminster Abbey. The Abbey itself is ornately Gothic with tall, delicate spires and flying buttresses, but the interior is surprisingly small and elaborate. Here is the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and graves of kings and queens, and some old friends from Eng. Lit. days—Dryden, Milton, Browning and T. S. Eliot.

My husband was invited by the Lord Mayor of Thetford to be his guest at a formal ball. John arrived in black tie, was handed a glass of sherry and then spotted the beribboned receiving line. Unsure of protocol, he approached the first gentleman in line, offered him his hand and introduced himself.

The man turned away immediately, walked to the center of the huge ballroom and shouted in a ringing voice, "Doctah John Wilding!" John's embarrassment was compounded when he realized that the man had no right arm . . .

Our accents betray us as Americans at once, and often open conversations. Many have visited our country or have relatives who have emigrated. The reaction of a friendly four-year old was different, however. Our conversation went like this:

"Hullo."
"Why, hello there. What's your name?"
"Lo-ith."
"Lois what?"
"Lo-ith Dobthion."
"That's a very nice name."
"You talk funny."

TIME FOR ELATION—Two of the Peninsula Community Plan's most ardent supporters, Jack Wardlow Jr. (left), and Dan Rowland, were on hand to celebrate Tuesday when the City Council approved the project by a unanimous vote. Rowland is second vice president of Peninsula, Inc., which prepared the plan, and Wardlow is a member of the board of directors.

Parade Bus Filling Fast

People who are anxious to get up early New Year's Day and take their hangovers to Pasadena for the Rose Parade have been calling to Pacific Beach Town Council this week to make reservations on the special parade bus.

Tickets are going like hot cakes, according to Bob O'Regan, the brain behind the trip. "We have 15 reservations already," he said. "Everyone interested should call 488-1049 before it's too late."

The bus will leave the Miller's West parking lot at 5 a.m. New Year's Day. The trip, including the grandstand seats for the parade, will be $13 for everything.

Symphony Happy With Response To Appeal

Arthur S. Johnson, president of the San Diego Symphony Orchestra Association, said today that the initial response to the Mayor's appeal for the San Diego Symphony was most gratifying.

Forty-two contributions have been received during the past two days, varying from a $1 bill, donated anonymously, to a check for $1,000.

Approximately half of these contributors are not members of the Symphony Association. "It is particularly satisfying to us that the Mayor's appeal is reaching into parts of the community which we have not been able to reach previously," Johnson added.

"We hope that the public is aware that the existence of the Orchestra depends to a very large degree on this special appeal for funds. The $5,000 emergency grant from the County Board of Supervisors we received yesterday is dependent on a grant from the City and on our ability to raise $19,000 from the community. All this in addition to our normal fund raising activities which we hope to begin shortly, after the first of the year."

We are particularly indebted to the media for the speed with which they carried this appeal into all parts of the City and County."

PENINSULA WOMAN 'FOUND' IT

Anniversary Rose Presented To City

Rose San Diego, a new-comer to rose circles, was blessed, presented, and planted Saturday in the garden of a Peninsula woman who obtained a rose for San Diego's 200th Anniversary.

Mrs. William F. Betts, Jr., chairman of the Rose Committee of the 200th, said she began looking three years ago for a rose to be named for San Diego.

16,000 roses have gone on sale following the formal dedication ceremonies. The first 4,000 bare root stock will be sold exclusively by San Diego County Camp Fire Girls.

"The Camp Fire Girls will be the first distributors of the rose," Mrs. Betts said. "We wanted them to have a chance to become involved in this project, and to help with their fund-raising programs."

The Camp Fire girls began distributing pre-order forms for the roses last week end, and will continue to sell the first 4,000 during the next several weeks.

All 16,000 of the roses were blessed at the first planting ceremony by Rear Admiral Edward B. Harp Jr., Chaplain, USN, ret.

The honorary rose was then presented to Charles E. Cordell, president, San Diego 200th Anniversary, Inc., to dedicate the flower as the official rose of the bicentennial celebration.

Mayor and Mrs. Frank Curran also received a presentation of the official rose at the affair attended by civic officials and community leaders.

The official San Diego 200th Anniversary rose is a creamy yellow, with 50-55 petals, Mrs. Betts said. It was hybridized by David L. Armstrong of Armstrong Nurseries, Ontario, Calif.

"It wasn't easy to get a commercial nursery to develop a San Diego Rose," she said. "Hybridizers do not like to name roses after cities."

"There's only a San Antonio Rose and a Los Angeles Rose, and now a San Diego Rose, according to Mrs. Betts.

Mrs. Betts and her committee, Mrs. Joseph Kenneally and Mrs. Allan Zukor, started working in 1965 after they were requested by the 200th Anniversary, Inc., to "get a rose!"

Raymond Simpson, a Long Beach attorney representing Mrs. Steiger, contended that the Steiger plot should have a high-density rating due to its proximity to a shopping area, military installations and California Western University.

Simpson said the high-density rating had the support of Glenn Rick, former city planning commissioner.

Hugh Tiner, a Point Loma realtor and former Peninsula Chamber president, also supported a higher classification for the Steiger parcel. He said it was the consensus of real estate people that the property was best suited for commercial or multi-family development.

Eve Lowery, of 3720 Jennings St.; Fred Seibert, of 3627 Jennings, and Reynolds Winters, of 905 Albion, urged the Council to retain the Steiger plot's R-1 designation.

Councilman Henry Scheide then moved that the Council approve the plan. Councilman Allen Hitch offered an amendment to the motion providing for medium-density rating for the Steiger property.

Hitch's amendment died for lack of a second and Scheide's motion then was passed.

No one was more jubilant than Charles Bahde who, as president of Peninsula's for three years, played a dominant role in preparation and adoption of the plan.

It was extra gratifying because the decision came on his 43rd birthday.

"I couldn't have had a finer birthday present," he commented.

Truck Strikes Hydrant, Sends Water Into Air

A spectacular jet of water jumped 80 feet into the air at the corner of Oliver and Ingraham Streets Tuesday night after a truck accidentally struck a fire hydrant.

The gigantic column of water rapidly flooded neighboring streets and attracted a crowd of spectators although the area was dark and without any street lights.

Police said yesterday that the hydrant was hit by a vehicle driven by Irving S. Goodman of 1512 La Playa Ave., Apt. 304. The 24-year old driver tried to make a left turn in his Twin City Furniture truck, but hit the south center line of Oliver, jumped a curb and hit the hydrant.

An emergency crew from the city utilities department quickly stopped the fountain which was caused by the hydrant being broken off at the base.

'ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE'

Congo Youth Back To Finish Education

The combined efforts of citizens in four North Shores communities have succeeded in performing the "almost impossible" by bringing back a former "foreign exchange" student whose education and future were in jeopardy in his own native land.

Jacques Mankoto, a Congolese youngster, returned home to the Congo recently after spending a year at Clairmont High School under the auspices of the International Christ Youth Exchange Program of the Pacific Beach Methodist Church.

Mrs. W. S. Chamness of La Jolla Rancho Road, La Jolla, coordinator of the program, said Mankoto lived with a host church family, the Ed Rodenbergs of 2841 Lloyd St. for the 1967-68 school year.

During his stay Mankoto was active in various sports at the school and participated in church activities. He quickly learned English. When he first arrived he only spoke French.

"All too soon the year was gone," said Mrs. Chamness. "At the last minute it was discovered that Mankoto's schooling could not be continued when he returned home. There was a remote possibility that an exception could be made permitting him to return to this country."

"Time was limited, sufficient money was not available for expenses of travel and tuition and Pan American only flew so many flights to the United States."

"It seemed almost impossible," said Mrs. Chamness. Mankoto says he would have had to repeat his senior year of high school in the Congo and then it would not be certain whether or not he could enter one of the very few and overcrowded Congo universities run on the Belgian university system. Only students who score over 80 per cent on their entrance tests can continue college.

However, Mankoto's return became a reality when the Pacific Beach United Methodist Church heard and got behind the need. The men of the church held a pancake breakfast, the Missions Commission gave support, individuals contributed, his host family coordinated the arrangements, and Mesa College arranged for admission.

Mankoto was only home in the Congo five days. If he intended to enroll in college here in the United States it was necessary to return immediately. But the five days passed and no money for his return ticket arrived, although it had been provided.

An emergency organization came to the rescue by buying the transportation ticket, although all Mankoto had in hand was a letter of backing.

He was able to obtain Congo to Los Angeles Pan American Flight and now he is attending Mesa College, one of 14 foreign students on campus. He is continuing to live with his original host family. He is a member of the church volleyball and basketball teams and is actively engaged in the youth program of the church.

This year the Fall Arts and Crafts Festival to be held at the Pacific Beach United Methodist Church, tomorrow from 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., will back the scholarship for Mankoto and also support the sports program of the church.

The proceeds no longer will provide money for some unknown foreign student. Mankoto—in the flesh—has returned to attend college and to contribute to the church and community.

Gold Cup Awarded To San Diego For 1969

The 1969 Gold Cup Unlimited Hydroplane races will be held in Mission Bay next year in conjunction with San Diego's 200th Anniversary celebration.

Wally Featheringill chairman of the Mission Bay Associate's Racing Committee, announced that the American Powerboat Association has granted the top race of the season to San Diego.

Although Featheringill was not certain of the race date, it was reported unofficially that the date would be Sunday, Sept. 28 on the popular Mission Bay course.

The unlimited hydros have raced the past four years on Mission Bay and drivers and owners expressed great satisfaction with the local course calling it the "finest and fastest" anywhere.

Electrical, Appliance Show Opens Next Weekend At Concourse

The 35th annual Electrical and Home Appliance Show will be held in the Community Concourse Nov. 29 through Dec. 4 under sponsorship of the Bureau of Home Appliances, according to Secretary-Manager J. Clark Chamberlain. The Show will be open from noon to 10 p.m. daily.

A ribbon cutting ceremony will take place opening the show at noon Nov. 29 at which Mayor Frank Curran; Patti Heighon, "Miss San Diego"; Mary Lamberton, "Fairness of the Fair"; and other dignitaries will participate. Both girls will serve as official hostesses for the show.

Extensive Christmas lighting throughout the Community Concourse area and upon the Administration Building will be dedicated at 7:30 p.m., preceded by a 30-minute Christmas concert featuring the acappella choir of San Diego High School under the direction of Miss Norvana Smedley.

According to Lee Bornstein, chairman of the Bureau's Show Committee, there will be a greater variety of the exhibits in the fields of appliances, electronics, and other types of home equipment and convenience than ever before. A number of manufacturers are using this Show to introduce entirely new products into the San Diego market, many of which will be actively demonstrated.

In recognition of the significant 35th anniversary of the Electrical Show first held on the Broadway Pier in 1933, a number of special feature displays have been arranged, said Bornstein. Among these will be the first public showing nationally of a new concept called "Round the Clock Bedroom Living", involving a number of completely decorated and furnished rooms sponsored by the San Diego Home Furnishings Association.

Another will be the non-commercial feature film, "The House of Tomorrow", to be shown in a special theater setting as conceived by the engineers and scientists of the Philco-Ford Corporation. Several other first-time exhibits by the same organization will include a Mars space craft vehicle, and the spectacular Locat Missile.

Many millions recently enjoyed the telecast of our three astronauts from Apollo 7, the techniques of which will be demonstrated in a very special display sponsored by RCA, developers of the camera, during this show.

Mr. Santa Claus, traditional host of the Electrical Show, will be on his throne during afternoons and evenings dispensing 5,000 candy canes for the little ones. Santa's helpers will have 10,000 free 35th anniversary show balloons for the younger set.

door prizes will be given away during the six days of the show with tickets free to all attendees.

United Church Returns To One Sunday Service

United Church of Mission Village, 2650 Melbourne Dr., will return Sunday to one service, a 10 a.m., with nursery care and Sunday School at the same time.

The congregation has been experimenting since September with two services with adult education in between. Last week it was decided by ballot to return to a single service, as the experiment was not convenient for a majority of the membership.

This Sunday, Rev. Ray Thompson's sermon topic will be "Truth Does Hurt." For the next few months he will be preaching a series on Jesus Christ—His teachings, miracles, parables, and events in His life.

Organ music will be provided by Mrs. Barbara Denison, and the Chancel Choir will sing an anthem under the direction of Mrs. Lourene Thompson.

All children, from three years of age through junior high school, will attend Church School at 10 a.m. The adult education classes will decide within themselves when and where they will meet.

A special feature during the worship service Sunday will be the dedication of

Lesson Comes From Psalms

"Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God."

This confident expression of faith from Psalm 42 is included in the Bible Lesson-Sermon titled "Soul and Body" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Services begin at 10 a.m. in Seventh Church of Christ, Scientist, 4602 Fanel St., Pacific Beach. All are welcome.

pledge cards for the 1967 budget. A coffee hour will be held after the service on the patio.

Midwest Pastor Joins Methodist Church Staff

Rev. Neal S. Jensen has been appointed as associate pastor at the Point Loma United Methodist Church, effective Oct. 1. He comes to the church from the pastorate of the First United Methodist Church, Mokena, Ill.

He is a graduate of the Northern Illinois University and the Methodist Theological School in Ohio. His appointments have included positions as associate pastor and pastor in Chicago-area churches. His family includes his wife Jean and daughters Kim and Susan.

The Point Loma Church, in adding a second minister to the church staff, is emphasizing stronger ministry in the area of youth, young adults, and young married people. Recognizing that the parish includes an increasing number of such folk, the church is attempting a much-broadened program of study, worship, fellowship, and service opportunities. Already new college-single young adult and young marrieds groups have been formed.

Mr. Jensen is also acting

as church staff representative with the "In Between" youth center on lower Newport Avenue, which is bringing together an increasingly ecumenical group for support, counsel, and personal involvement.

Two services of worship are offered at the church each Sunday morning, with the 9:30 service following contemporary forms and using current musical forms, and the 11 a.m. service continuing the patterns used in the church regularly. A 25-voice youth choir and six-piece youth instrumental groups shares at the early service, and the 25-voice Adult choir and pipe organ give leadership at the 11 a.m. service.

Rev. Jones Takes Pulpit At LJ Church

The Rev. Edward H. Jones, D.D., pastor of visitation of La Jolla Presbyterian Church, will be in the pulpit next Sunday at both services of worship, 9 and 11 a.m. Dr. Jones has chosen as his sermon topic, "This Nation Under God." Child care will be provided in the Christian Education Building.

Choral music will be provided by the Chapel Choir and the Chancel Choir, under the direction of L. Robert Slusser, Minister of Music. At the nine o'clock service the Chapel Choir will sing the anthems, "Let All Things Now Living," by Katherine Davis. The Chancel Choir at the 11 o'clock service will sing the anthems, "Blow Ye Trumpet," by Francis Jackson, and "Now Thank We All Our God" (Reformation Cantata), by J. S. Bach. Mr. Slusser will be at the organ.

Church School classes from Nursery through Junior High are conducted at 9 a.m., and Nursery through Junior Department at 11 a.m. The Senior High Class will meet at 10:30 a.m.

The Koinonia Choir will meet for rehearsal at 5:45 Sunday evening. The Junior High Fellowship will meet at 6:15 p.m., the Koinonia at 7:15 p.m., and the Collegians at 7:30 p.m.

WELL ADJUSTED

The man who manages to make his own way is the only one who gets his own way.

Episcopalians Hold Thanksgiving Benefit

A Thanksgiving Ingathering by the Church School at St. James-by-the-Sea Episcopal Church in La Jolla, will take place this Sunday. This collection of staple items and canned food will be presented to the diocesan Church Home for Children to help them feed the young people in their care during the winter months.

On this Sunday, The Next Before Advent, there will be a Communion Service at 7:30 a.m. and a Family Service at 9 a.m. at which time the rector, The Rev. Robert M. Wolterstorff, D.D., will preach. The music at this family service will be provided by the Junior Choirs and they will sing for their anthem, "Daughters of Zion" by George F. Handel. Morning Prayer is the order of service at 11 a.m. and the Rev. John H. Angell, assistant to the rector, will deliver the sermon. The Senior Choir, has selected for its anthem: "Lord, make me to know" (Requiem) by Brahms.

Holy Communion services are scheduled on Friday at 7:30 a.m., Tuesday at 8 a.m., Wednesday at 10 a.m. and Thursday at 7:30 a.m. and 10 a.m.

Pastor Tells Topic Title For Sunday

"Thanksgiving" is the title of the sermon David E. McCracken, minister, will give to the Community Congregational Church of Pacific Beach, 2088 Beryl St. at the worship service, 10:50 a.m.

Emphasizing the need for simple thankfulness in everyday living and the continued awareness of what each of us has to be thankful for, McCracken presents his Thanksgiving message.

The forum, which meets at 9:30 a.m. will undertake the intricacies of "Communication in Conflict Situations", continuing of bring out the pitfalls of communication between individuals as we struggle through life.

The choir will sing Maunder's "Praise the Lord, Oh Jerusalem" under the direction of Mrs. Ade Leverenz. Alan Leverenz will accompany the choir on the organ.

Church School convenes at 9:30 a.m. Nursery care is provided during both services. Coffee is served on the patio between services.

The San Diego County Council of Churches invites interested persons to entertain a Marine in their home Nov. 29-Dec. 1. This is to show these young men that we care for them the week before they ship to Vietnam. They will be picked up at Pioneer Church at 6 p.m. Friday and will leave from there at 6 p.m. Sunday.

A giant radio telescope picked up bursts of static from a galaxy 2000 light years away. In them, scientists discovered these simple words:

"Earthmen, your planet is in danger. As your morals decay, your great cities slowly crumble. You will see wars and civil strife."

"But we offer you hope," the ancient message continued. "A new world. We can give you knowledge and bring you the peace for which you have searched so long..."

Science-fiction? Not entirely.

There is a message that originated in a distant place over 2000 years ago. It describes the world as it is today, and it offers hope for the future.

The Bible, inspired by God, is a very real message, one that you can begin reading today. Then go to church on Sunday and meet the Author there.

Bishop Helps Draft Letter At Conference

The Provost of the University of San Diego, the Most Rev. Bishop John R. Quinn, was one of the six co-authors of the statement the Roman Catholic Bishops issued from their Washington conference Saturday.

Bishop Quinn, who returned to San Diego Monday was one of the committee of six bishops selected to draft the document on "Human Life in our Day." It is the annual pastoral letter from 200 American Bishops.

The pastoral, deals with contraception, the draft laws, wars, weapons and the family of nations among a variety of tropical problems.

Bishop Quinn said yesterday: "The pastoral letter set out to clarify the relationship between the love of life and the worship of God. There is evidence that many men find difficulty in reconciling their love of life with worship of God."

"It is a statement which is an overall defense of life. It deals with influences in the family and in international relationships which attack life and are inimical to it," he said.

By Robert E. Whitworth

Today is your day. Not yesterday or tomorrow, but today is the important fact of your life.

How are you living today? Emerson said that the weaver may miss a thread or two in the weaving, but the finished work always shows the defect in the design.

Let us so live that our thoughts, speech and acts will produce a finished work that reflects our highest ideals. Life is not meant to be an illusion, a failure or a tragedy of vain hopes and misspent days; but rather a glorious adventure of discovery and achievement.

"Look to this day, For it is the very life of life."

In its brief course lie all the verities and realities of your existence."

The 70,000 are scattered over thousands of miles, in places as diverse as Alaska and Puerto Rico. In years they span the spectrum from childhood to old age. All are contributing their bit to a long-range study aimed at determining the best use of a most effective drug—isoniazid—in preventing and ultimately wiping out tuberculosis in this country.

In remote subarctic settlements, Appalachian villages, Puerto Rican towns and mainland cities, individuals and whole families threatened directly or indirectly by TB have patiently taken isoniazid pills week after week for a year or longer, and subjected themselves to scrutiny for more than ten years. They have been cooperating with doctors, nurses and clinic workers to record the effectiveness of the drug.

The results observed so far, as reported by Mrs. Shirley H. Ferebee of the U. S.

Public Health Service, are fascinating and highly encouraging. Writing in the October issue of the Bulletin of the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, Mrs. Ferebee disclosed among other facts that the number who developed TB is about two-and-a-half times smaller in the group receiving isoniazid medication than in the group not receiving it.

With such information to go on, TB fighters in official and voluntary agencies are placing more emphasis on prevention through drugs while seeking to improve treatment for those already affected. For more information on today's methods of fighting a disease that strikes nearly 45,000 Americans each year, ask your Christmas Seal association for its free literature on tuberculosis.

This column is sponsored in the interest of better health by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of San Diego County — your Christmas Seal agency.

OUTSTANDING TRAINEE—Pvt. Erwin (Robbie) Hansler, U. S. Army, graduated recently from basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. as outstanding trainee leader of his company. DEEP FREEZE 1968—Yeoman 2/C Michael L. Spencer, USN, 29, son of Mrs. Raymond L. Spencer of 4563 Cheshire St., is participating in Operation Deep Freeze 1969. The operation is the 14th year of naval support for scientific research in Antarctica with Air Development Squadron Six (VX-6) and provides logistical support to scientists of the U. S. Antarctic Research Program. The squadron's mission includes transporting men, fuel, food, and supplies to the stations in the interior of the continent in addition to shuttles between New Zealand and McMurdo Station, the main Antarctic base for U. S. operations.

SYMPHONIC NOTES—Although the San Diego Symphony has temporarily cancelled the winter season due to a wage crisis, the Woman's Committee of the Symphony Association, will not "give up." They are holding their meetings as usual with the hope negotiations will

CUIDAR Aids Needy

Mrs. Harriet Rohlf of Point Loma, president of CUIDAR, which helps the needy children of Neighborhood House, has announced that the annual Christmas luncheon and open house will be held Dec. 13 at the settlement house, 1809 National Ave.

Invitations will be mailed and all members are urged to invite any person or group president interested in supporting Neighborhood House or becoming aware of the programs offered to the people in this area.

Mexican food prepared by the Mothers Club of Harbor Center will be served, according to the CUIDAR chairman, Mrs. J. Clark Chamberlain and Mrs. Harlan Boucher, co-chairmen of the luncheon.

CUIDAR's yearbook is being assembled and sent to members as soon as possible. Members toured the Teen Center at Neighborhood House recently and Mr. Simon Judge, Center director, showed them the great need for many items needed to show the needs of the young people in the area.

Members voted to give $25 to obtain items under bid from Navy Surplus and Judge reported he obtained a hair-dryer for use in a girls self-improvement class being taught by a volunteer. A coffee was also held recently at the home of Mrs. Albert Y. Mayrhofer, program chairman and Miss Marjorie Mayrhofer.

Angel Trees will once again be in all seven Walker-Scott stores this year Nov. 29 and 30; Dec. 6 and 7 and Dec. 13 and 14. Camp Fire Girls and their leaders will donate many hours to help in this annual project.

Tijuana Casa To Benefit

Business and professional women of St. James-by-the-Sea Episcopal Church or the St. Joan's Unit, met Tuesday at the parish house for its annual dessert and benefit card party.

Gourmet desserts from English trifle to apple and berry pie were featured. Miss Florence Wernham and Mrs. Janes Win were co-chairmen of the evening.

Proceeds from the benefit affair will aid the work of the Christian Children's Casa in Tijuana.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Howard of Clairemont have announced the engagement of their daughter Betty to Ronald M. Steele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Steele of Point Loma. Miss Howard was graduated from Mission Bay High School. He was graduated from Point Loma High School and attends Mesa College. A January 25 wedding is planned at Point Loma Community Presbyterian Church.

Other groups participating include the Harbor Lights, La Jolla, San Diego Civic, South Bay and Suburban Toastmistress Clubs.

Luncheon speaker Robert "Bud" James, San Diego County Clerk, will discuss "Knowledge and Involvement—The Philosophy of Life." In addition the Galley Slaves will entertain.

ORT Unit Proposed

A new North Shores chapter of ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training) began Tuesday with a coffee held at the home of Mrs. Robert Hayflick in La Jolla.

Persons interested were invited to attend. Mrs. Melvin Goldberg of El Cajon can be contacted for further information about the new chapter.

The training program of ORT teaches skills in the United States and abroad to students, unable to get an education. The proposed chapter would include the entire North County area.

Success is largely a matter of ways and means—winning ways and sufficient means.

Town Talk

By MARY FISHEL

EVERYBODY'S TALKING... about... San Diego's 200th Anniversary... not just talking either, but getting ready—for instance... City Councilman Jack Walsh and Lloyd Lowrey of the tree section of the City Park and Recreation Department, have just kicked off a tree program by planting a Podocarpus (corner of Second and B)... the eventual cost to the taxpayers for 1,364 trees and 215 shrubs by 1969 will be thousands of dollars. Now almost everyone loves trees, but by the same token, everything is relative. Should we spend more to have trees for the Anniversary, (we hope to encourage industry and tourists) and NOT have a San Diego Symphony Orchestra? The people of California (including San Diegans) have spent billions to build a great system of higher education and then defeated Proposition 3 severely limiting the University of California including the campus here not to mention the state colleges including San Diego State... did they realize this defeat may end in paying more taxes for the two year Junior Colleges?

Is this a "City In Motion" if so in what direction is it moving? The Woman's committee of the San Diego Symphony with Mrs. John McBride Thornton of Point Loma (president) refuses to admit defeat. They are continuing to hold all their meetings and hope negotiations which are still open, will be resolved. As Sally (Mrs. John) put it "We have worked too long and too hard for the Symphony and 'we ain't down yet'... she also emphasized the long-range plan... not just this year, but the community support needed for years to come.

Arthur S. Johnson, president of the San Diego Symphony Association, feels the same way and said although music lovers do appreciate the wonderful concerts given in San Diego by the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the Symphony Board members wish the Philharmonic would come to San Diego under the sponsorship of the San Diego Symphony.

They play here now under the sponsorship of the San Diego County Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic, thus the money in San Diego is divided. It is extremely hard to combat a world personality such as Zubin Mehta, even though he only conducts in San Diego two or three times a season.

The Los Angeles Philharmonic reflects glory and gives great music to the "City of the Angels" but it does not give childrens concerts in San Diego such as the Symphony does and it is NOT San Diego's orchestra!

There were approximately 7,000 youngsters, who attended the first three childrens' concerts performed by the San Diego Symphony, before the season was canceled due to wage disputes. According to Johnson, the Symphony needs about $100,000 to keep going, less, by the way, than the cost of the trees.

NEED A PIG?... pinata, that is, very gay and colorful and very LARGE! If so, it is suspended from the ceiling at the annual "Gallery of Gifts" staged by the La Jolla Country Day School held at Seaside Buick on Torrey Pines Road, La Jolla.

School parents are the clerks from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. every day; sale ends Saturday. All your Christmas shopping can be done in one place thanks to about 70 local merchants.

Just to mention a few of a wide variety... canned raincoats, jellies, giant electric wristwatches to hang on the wall, lap desks, colorful caseroles, eyelashes (sold by the inch), a humidifier housing a personal telephone, an adjustable bed, robes, lingerie, tennis dresses, cars, earrings, Alpaca fur pillows, stationary, stuffed animals, books, cigarette lighters and sandals.

The Pig weighs about 60 pounds and was designed and made by William Goodell of LJ Country Day and his students in the art department. Proceeds will aid the school library and help initiate a micro-film library.

CAN YOU SEW?... if so (especially if you have a portable sewing machine) and if you would like to do some volunteer work to help mothers of disadvantaged families learn or even develop an interest, so they in turn can make clothes for their children, your services would be greatly appreciated.

Any women in the North Shores area, who would like to help, should contact Karl Hall, public information officer, Economic Opportunity Commission, 861 Sixth Ave. (239-9281).

HOW TRUE!... Colville MacDougall of Pacific Beach said she heard a minister in a PB church say "One can spend a lot of money on a dog, but it takes love to wag its tale!"

A reception was held at Admiral Kidd Officers' Club. Following a wedding trip to Hawaii the couple will reside in Alhambra.

The bride attended the University of California at Los Angeles and San Diego State. She is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority.

The bridegroom was graduated from UCLA and was affiliated with Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity.

Projection Fashion Feminine Pants In

Individuality marks the essence of today's fashion thinking, the projection of a very private and personal self.

The "Look" has never been more defined yet less regimented. It's doing your own thing and putting it across as only a woman can.

Projecting is shape, affirming the womanly curves of a healthy body, the lean, active American look. It's narrow, closely shaped bodices, noticeable waists, free-to-move, in hemlines. It's soft, flowing lines and important necklines, sleeves, detailing.

The trend is strongly sportswear, not so much casual as pulled together, perfected with thought and taste. Dresses have a shirty look accented by the ever present waist.

From shapier little tops spring full-flowing sleeves—raglan, kimono or set-in and tucked at the shoulder, deeply cuffed at the wrist.

Or choose the long and slender, multi-buttoned sleeve, or no sleeve at all. Necks are deeply V'd, importantly collared or high and tight, always definitive, setting the mood.

The waist continues versatile, belted, wrapped, sashed, seamed or merely suggested. Biggest news is still the skirt. Never, ever straight, it moves and moves, from flares, to pleats and gathers, to billows of softness.

Coats and suits project the same feeling, shapier, waisted, shirty. The suit comes across with jackets longer and belted or cropped at the waist, always over a free-moving skirt.

Coats, too, hug the body, flare at the hem. They're most new and sporty when sleeveless topping a dress or shirt.

Exotic resort evenings soften up still more, flow still more. Long or short, full-sleeved or sleeveless, the mood is one of fluid elegance and grace.

Nudity plays a big part for evening with plunged necklines, bared shoulders or daring cut-outs displaying a not-so-modest bit of skin. Jeweled beading remains important done with a lighter touch and evening pants are newest, so glamorous, they easily replace long gowns.

Projecting is the newness of pants highlighting a long, lean adventuresome look. Pants under dresses, pants under tunics, their importance lies in superb shaping. The tops stretch down from narrow bust and waist to a modest below-the-hip flare, the pants move from slim hips to an easy, widened leg whether straight or eased or extravagantly flared.

It's an elegant, balanced look of costume rather than pieced-together sporty that ranges from daytime pants to lacy or flowing evening creations.

Projecting is color,—white, lots and lots of pristine white, followed by richer reds and blues to navy. Brights have matured, they are clearer or more muted, with yellows and greens favored.

The brights belong more to a heady prints than solid tones and the pale beiges to browns make a strong showing.

Projecting is fabric,—soft, ultra soft as in jerseys, cottons, light, light wools or chiffons and magnificent silks. Cotton checks, tweeds and plaids, imaginative novelty prints and lavish florals are newest looking and woven pattern is a must for solid tones. Nothing is flat, unicolor.

Projecting is subtle suggestion, it's creating a mood, enhancing ones femaleness. Today's clothes project the intrinsic femininity of all women, right but not rigid, imaginative and tasteful, contoured rather than constructed.

It's up to the individual to express this in her own personal style.

Communication

Seaman Apprentice Kirk Dretzka, USN, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Dretzka of 3953 Hortensia St., reported for duty at the U.S. Naval Communication Station, Finegayan, Guam.
The Naval Communication station in Guam is one of the six primary communication stations operated by the Navy throughout the world. The station is the primary communication relay point for all naval forces in the Western Pacific, and under the Defense Communication Agency, has become the primary relay point for all of the services, handling some 600,000 messages a month.

SALUTE TO CITY'S SERVICEMEN

'Operation Thanks' Repeat Is Planned

"Operation Thanks", the city of San Diego's salute to servicemen and women overseas, will be repeated in 1968 according to a joint announcement made by Mayor Frank Curran, George Whitney, Vice President and General Manager of KFMB-TV, and George Scott, president of Walker Scott, sponsor of the programs to be televised in conjunction with the project.

The campaign is designed to show servicemen that their city is grateful for their service, and to take them special greetings from San Diego in the form of a TV/8-produced color film. Accompanying the Mayor on the overseas trip, which will include presentations in Vietnam, will be TV/8 Program Director, George Stantis and TV/8 Production Manager, Ralph Hodges.

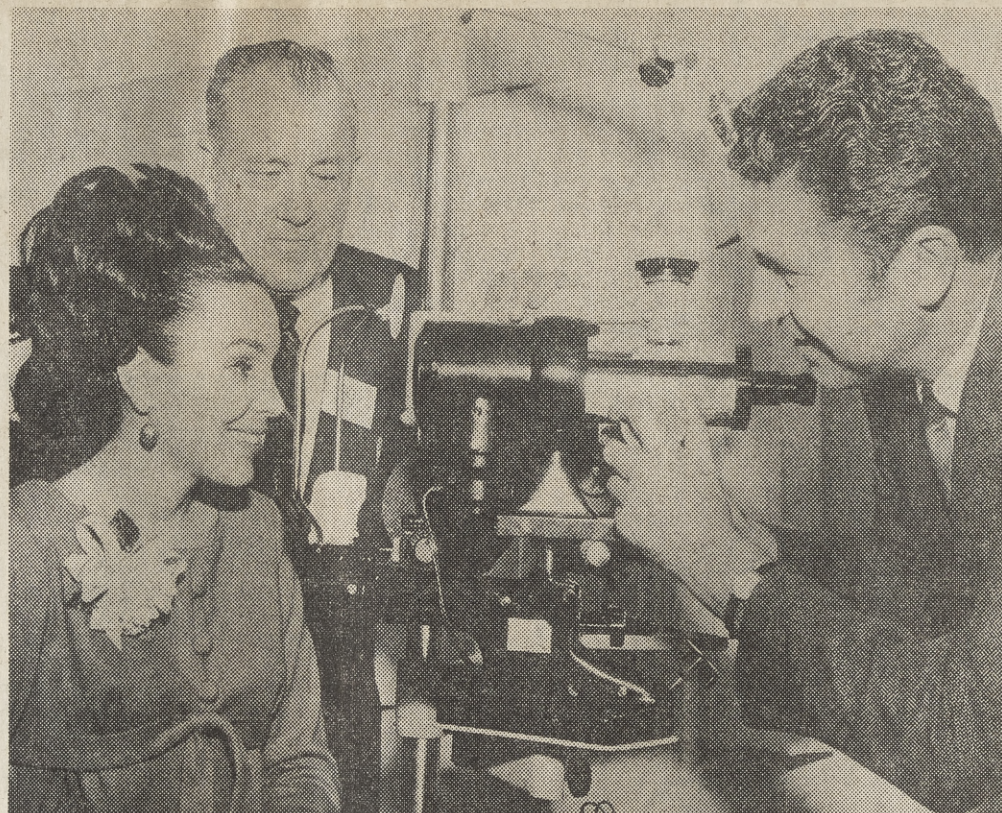

"Operation Thanks", conceived by TV/8 Program Director George Stantis in 1967, is the culmination of a KFMB Television community-involvement campaign to recognize the sacrifices and services of San Diego servicemen overseas during the holiday season. Thousands of area residents have participated in the preparation of the special film being produced for overseas showing.

Interviews with downtown shoppers, school children, businessmen, and other San Diego residents are included in the film as well as the impressive half-time ceremony performed during the recent Charger-Cincinnati football game in San Diego stadium. More than 40,000 persons joined in shouting greetings to the men in service. Ozzie's Marching Band spelled out "Thanks" on the football field and a 1,000 voice choir and spectators sang "God Bless America". The ceremony was televised nationally.

The "Operation Thanks" team will leave San Diego on Dec. 13 for a 10 day overseas tour of U. S. Navy and U. S. Marine Corps installations in Saigon, DaNang and Tokyo as well as presentations aboard many ships including the USS Okinawa and the USS New Jersey.

Three special half-hour programs will be televised in conjunction with "Operation Thanks", and will be sponsored by the Walker Scott Department Stores. The television programs presented last year earned for TV/8 the coveted Regional Award from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences for excellence in Community Service Programming.

Last year's project was praised by President Johnson, Governor Reagan, state and civic leaders, and by thousands of servicemen and officers who encouraged a repeat of "Operation Thanks" this year.

Flying Samaritans

The Flying Samaritans of San Diego are participating in a polio immunization program in Mexico.

The Samaritans fly out of Montgomery Field and with doctors and nurses go on to Ensenada where they pick up Mexican nurses and the Tri Valent vaccine which is being supplied by the Mexican government.

From there they leave for 21 different villages in the state of Alta Baja. Among the villages to be reached are San Vicente, Colnett, Meling Ranch, San Quintin, El Rosario, Puertecitos, El Arco, Cedros Islands, Punta Prieta, Rancho Santa Ynez, Mission San Borja, Bay of Los Angeles and Okies Landing.

The Samaritans consist of volunteers from all walks of life who support and assist in medical aid and education to needy people of the remote areas of Baja California. Their work is being extended to an Indian group in California which has requested assistance.

Dr. Dale E. Hoyt is president of the non-profit organization which has been flying and driving to various weekend clinics below our border.

SWINGING PADRE

sport star Ron Drake of the University of Southern California has signed his contract with the San Diego Padres.

Drake, the regular third baseman for the NCAA champion Trojans last season, will be assigned to the Padres' Key West club of the Class A Florida State League. He was drafted by San Diego in the June major league free agent selections.

The six-foot, 185-pound native of Whittier, California, was an all-Coast performer in baseball and an all-American split end in football with the Trojans. He still holds the single season pass receiving record at USC, having caught 52 passes in his junior year.

During the 1967 baseball season, Drake played in 49 games and batted .257. Last season, he helped lead the Trojans to the Pacific Eight title and national collegiate championship with 11 doubles, four homers and 24 runs batted in in 60 games.

James Gibbs Will Speak

James Gibbs, chairman of the Creative Arts Department at San Diego City College for the past four years, will give a talk and show slides for the monthly meeting of Chi Kappa Rho, Women's Professional Recreation Sorority, at Balboa Park today at noon. The meeting will be held in the Conference Building.

Sportsman's Corner

By JEAN SCOTT

The storm conditions last Friday slowed ocean fishing but helped the local duck season.

Freshwater anglers found bass and bluegill action at San Vicente poor, however, lunker channel catfish catches helped the fish report. Trout strings were hefty at Lake Murray and Miramar reservoir with Murray also producing some bass and bluegill action.

On Saturday morning fishermen on Seaford's "San Diego" ran into a good school of big bonito but on the noon run the fish played hard to get. Sunday's count of 47 barracuda and 405 bonita for 66 passengers showed some improvement in spite of the storm. When you add the 20 bass, 28 rockfish and 70 miscellaneous, Seaford's anglers averaged more than eight fish per—and for winter fishing, that's bad?

The best San Vicente could do in the bass department was a four-pounder. Two 11½-pound channel catfish were taken at Vicente and reports of others over ten-pounds had bass anglers switching to cut bonito bait.

N. D. Martin of San Diego landed one of the 11½-pounders fishing the Kimball Arm area of the lake. The other huge cat was taken by Ronald Petranek of El Cajon, both anglers used cut bonito bait.

Seven-year-old Westly Haydock, 3139 Mt. Carol Dr., landed a trout limit at Lake Murray and because one of the fish was a three-pounder he thought he should get a prize or something. He got "something," a piece of bubble gum from the concessionaire at the lake.

Then the youngsters proceeded to inform Orville Ball, city lakes recreation specialist, that he was sure his prize trout was a female. Ball, expecting just about anything, asked him how he knew. "It's fat", young Westly replied.

Miramar reservoir, the trophy trout fishing hole, lived up to its name over the weekend. An 8½-pound limit was taken by Bill Winegard of El Cajon and a three-pounder was on the eight-pound string landed by Richard E. Jones of 4554 North Ave., Ted Milch, 5432 Mt. Vernon Dr., only had four trout, but his fish weighed 6½-pounds including a 2½-pounder.

Duck hunting improved and this weekend could be the best yet if the birds reported by Morena reservoir's keeper decide to stay for awhile. Three canvasbacks and a teal were downed by Dr. John R. Hawes 7742 Lake Tahoe Dr., at Morena on Sunday.

The keeper at Morena noted that a flock of about two dozen canvasback ducks were on the reservoir early Monday morning. Barrett reservoir checked in with a four ducks per hunter average and Lower Otay reported a three bird average for its hunters.

La Jolla Hosts Senior Tourney

Dorothy Bundy Cheney of Santa Monica will seek her 12th successive singles title—extending a record without precedent in U. S. Lawn Tennis Association records dating back to 1881—when the 20th annual National Senior Hardcourt Tennis Championships are held on Dec. 3-8 at La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club.

The senior competition, held at La Jolla since 1953, will be accompanied by the National Father-and-Son Doubles Championships on Dec. 6-8.

Mrs. Cheney began winning the senior hardcourts the first year she was eligible, 1957, defeating Mary Prentiss, now of San Clemente, in the finals. Mrs. Prentiss, who had won in 1956, has been runner-up nine times since.

Nearest competitors for winning successive titles in official U.S.L.T.A. championships are R. D. Sears, men's singles grasscourt winner from 1881-1887 and J. Gilbert Hall, senior grasscourt titlist from 1944-1950. Mrs. Richard Buck won the women's senior grasscourt singles eight times but not in succession. Bill Tilden, named the greatest tennis player of the first half of the 20th Century, won six successive men's singles titles on both grass and clay.

Tilden also won once indoors, giving him a total of 13 U.S. L.T.A. singles titles, a mark that Mrs. Cheney could equal in 1969 if she wins this year.

Volkswagen's automatic stick shift. It's easier to use than it is to say.

It's quite a mouthful, isn't it? But once you get by the name, the rest is easy. There isn't a clutch pedal to contend with. And for all practical purposes, you can drive everywhere without shifting. On the highway, you shift once. (This is like an overdrive: you go faster, your engine goes slower, and your automatic bug won't turn into an automatic hog.)

And when the going gets rough (like up a ridiculously steep hill), you can shift into low. What could be simpler?

One thing: the automatic stick shift is an option. So you'll have to pay a little more. But compared to other automatics, it's a bargain. Because with every automatic stick shift, we include a remarkable money-saving device: A Volkswagen.

Aztecs Host TSU Tigers

The San Diego State Aztecs, coming off a week's rest after overwhelming Southern Mississippi 68-7, take on the Tennessee State Tigers in San Diego Stadium Saturday in an 8 p.m. contest. The Tigers are 5-2 on the season, losing only to Grambling and Florida A&M. The Aztecs topped their 16-8 last year, and the Tigers want revenge.

Defense is Tennessee State's strong suit. The Tigers have limited opponents to 89 yards passing and a scant 57 yards on the ground, one of the best "per game averages" in college play. Their defense is led by a pair

Title Play Not Real Says Coach

By JOHN E. WIRGES
Sentinel Sports Editor

Kearny High School takes on Morse in a battle of league champions tomorrow night at Aztec Bowl while El Capitan meets University on the same grounds Saturday in semi-final play for the City CIF title.

No matter who wins, however, the city titlist will not be allowed to challenge the county champion. Despite all its efforts, the county champion will not be permitted to test the city winner. The San Diego CIF Board of Governors has so decreed.

"Even if you win, what have you got," questioned Kearny's Birt Slater, who doubles as president of the local Coaches Association. "It's taken out of our hands; we haven't got a voice. Last year we (the Coaches Association) met with representatives of every high school principal in San Diego County and received their unanimous approval for a San Diego City-County title game. The proposal was killed when it went before the Board of Superintendents," said Slater. "They just took it away from the principals, the coaches, the schools, and the kids."

Slater said the same high-handed approach was taken in regard to this year's CIF playoff. "Our games are played in direct confrontation with San Diego State's battles with Tennessee State and Utah State," said Kearny's coach. "We skip Thanksgiving and hold the title game on Saturday night. That just doesn't make sense."

Slater indicated members of the Coaches Association are considering a unified course of action in presenting their views. As soon as we decide on a course of action we will make it public," he said.

Kearny won the Western League Crown on solid defense, good speed and excellent passing. Gene Watkins gets excellent pass and blocking from Joe Mack (the Truck) and has a pair of the best receivers in the prep ranks in Eddie Eviszior and Dwight MacDonald.

Morse is tough down the middle but can be hurt on the outside. Dennis Odum, Kearny's speedy halfback and Joe Mack have the ability to keep the Morse Tigers honest on defense up the middle. The Tigers defensive backs must play better than their best to stop the Komets on the outside.

University takes one of the best defensive units in prep history against a small but speedy El Capitan team. The Dons outweigh El Cap some 13 pounds per man. Joe Amaral (210) and Steve Adams (260) anchor a line that held opponents to under seven points per game. The Dons have collected 239 points with a ball control style of play that wears opponents down. With quick Pat Quick and "Terrible" Terry Hernandez on pass defense they the Dons close off the air-ways. El Cap has a high scoring team, collecting 264 points with a wide open attack designed to upset defenders. The Vaqueros are a threat from almost any field position but have never faced a line equal to University.

The prediction here is that both Kearny and University will fight past the semi-finals and meet Nov. 30 for the City CIF Title.

Gulls Play Spurs At Sports Arena

The San Diego Gulls and Denver Spurs conclude a week-long, four-game series with games Friday night in Denver and Saturday night at the San Diego International Sports Arena.

The Gulls will be trying to maintain their unbeaten home record Saturday night when they take on the Spurs. Thus far this season, the Gulls have won five and tied two at the Sports Arena.

They ran the home unbeaten streak to seven last week with a 3-3 tie with Seattle Thursday night and a 4-3 win over Denver Sunday in the opener of the current series.

The Gulls had a seven-game unbeaten streak snapped Friday night in Phoenix when the Roadrunners belted them, 8-2. The seven-game undefeated string tied a team record established last season.

Their current home unbeaten streak of seven also ties a team record which the Gulls put together last season.

COMPLETE GAME PLANNED

Chargers Host New York Jets

The San Diego Chargers, returning to home grounds after two weeks in the wilds of the East, take on the television trounced New York Jets Sunday at San Diego Stadium. The Chargers met and beat the wind, rain and Patriots in Boston and the snow, cold, mud, and Bills in Buffalo in a trip that makes every member of the team proud and happy to be with San Diego.

The Jets are coming off a "heisting" by the Oakland Raiders in the mystery finish of the year. The telecast was cut nationally by the network in San Diego by the local station and even for those quick enough to turn to channel four, Los Angeles, cut there for a commercial. The winning touchdowns were covered on the instant replay machine following the commercial break but missed by most San Diego area fans who were busy trying to make a telephone call. Ah, the power of the pulled plug.

The Jets are looking for a win this week. The New Yorkers have clinched a tie for the Eastern Division crown and need the win for the title.

The Chargers must keep pace with both Oakland and Kansas City, in what looks to be a fight going all the way to the end of the line. The Chiefs draw a bye this weekend and wins by the Chargers and/or the Raiders will lock the Western Division race. The Chargers will face both contenders in San Diego Stadium to close out regular season play.

But first, the Jets. It was Joe Willie and Billy Joe and the New York Mud Squad who tipped the Chargers 23-20 at Shea Stadium on Oct. 5th. They have the league's number one defense and the number three offense. And they have Joe Willie Namath and a glue fingered receiver named George Sauer. They have Billie Joe and Matt Snell and Emerson Booser

(that's a name you can live with) and Don Maynard, to pose a high power scoring threat from anywhere on the field. And their defense is number one, remember.

The Chargers counter with... the Chargers. They bulldozed through the muck and mire of War Memorial Stadium in Buffalo for 235 yards and 21 points in the first half of Sunday's game. They stuck it to the Bills and now they get a return go with the Jets. The Chargers must play it like Russian Roulette, one loss is all it takes. One thing will improve this week. Fans at San Diego Stadium will see the entire game. Not even NBC can block out a stadium.

Route Runners Go To Post At Border Track

Another round in the constantly-changing battle for distance running honors at Caliente will headline the action next weekend as a select band of runners is sent a mile and one-eighth under handicap conditions.

In recent weeks Foreigner, Bald Eagle, Saddle Light, Ben Searchin, Fortune's Face and Tenth Legion have popped down with winning performances to place claims on divisional honors for the meet but none has been able to dominate the opposition.

Racing secretary H. E. Hopkins expects to bring all of them together, along with some other candidates in Sunday's Rockland Handicap and undoubtedly one of his high weights will be Alen Stutsman's Tenth Legion.

Last Sunday at a mile and one-quarter, North America's leading jockey, Alvaro Pineda, took him right to the front, then, with a perfect rating job, guided him under the wire in 2:02 4/5. This was only four-fifths off the track record.

Fans may have a chance to watch a rematch between two fast setting sprinters, Bobby Warren and Alcor, in Saturday's main, the five and one-half furlong Valiant Purse. Last Sunday heavily-favored Bobby Warren, going for his third straight and a claim on the spring title, yielded to the sprinting Alcor in the final strides of a three-quarter mile dash to stun the players.

If both enter they'll be in a field drawn from Salamaboo, Pocomoke, Caribbean, Chief Bowl, Moolah Cover, Porter's Belle, Mrs. Myre, War Nashville Boughtmeabond Broykarre, Master Sena and Stormy Tony.

A quail hen will lay from 12 to 18 eggs in her nest.

Westerners Close Out Against Sacramento St.

California Western's grid-ders will close the 1968 season and observe Homecoming Saturday when they meet Sacramento State College on the Balboa Stadium turf at 2 p.m.

Defeated in their last two starts: by Cal Lutheran (39-34) and Oregon College of Education (17-13) last week, the Westerners are now 3-5 for the season and in meeting the Hornets will face probably their toughest opponent of the campaign.

Sacramento State, coached by Ray Clemons, is 7-1 for the year and last week trampled the University of San Francisco, 76-0.

The only defeat suffered by the Hornets, who compete in the Far Western Conference, was to Humboldt State, the league champion, 20-13. Officials at Sacramento State said they are being considered for a post-season bowl bid and that a victory over Cal Western could nail down a spot, possibly in the Junior Rose Bowl at Pasadena.

A total of 13 seniors will be suiting up for the last time for Cal Western, including six starters on the offensive and defensive units. Winding up their grid careers today are: Jim Antl, end, who leads the Westerners in scoring with 42 points (seven touchdowns); Chris Cross, offensive tackle and Jim Regan, offensive guard. Manny Gullin, defensive tackle; Mike Cochran, linebacker and Mike Rhodes, defensive halfback, round out the six starters.

Others who finish their careers are Morris Muench, center; Doug Grace, reserve quarterback; John Hamels, end; Steve Minaldi, punter; Larry DeBora, guard; Ron Begley, guard and Bill Benjamin, halfback.

Pre-game ceremonies Saturday will feature the coronation of the Homecoming Queen and her Court and at halftime the Sacramento State College Band will perform.

La Jolla Day Tops Knights For Southern Title

La Jolla Country Day School captured its first Southern League Title Saturday by trouncing the San Miguel School Knights 39-0. It was the Torres first win over San Miguel.

Torres quarterback Dennis Anderson kicked, passed and ran past the Knights to daylight collecting nine points on a touchdown and three conversions. He moved the Torres with passes and sweeps during the first half, gaining some 250 yards on the outside attack. Mike Farwell scored the lone TD in the half but moving inside and hitting up the middle, the Torres collected 20 points in the third quarter. Jack Harlan scored on a 15 yard romp then Eric Kurts rambled for 68 yards and a tally. Paul Janis closed out the scoring with a 45 yard burst up the middle in the fourth period.

Marihuana Abuse Increases While America Sleeps

By HENRY L. GIORDANO
Associate Director, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous
Drugs, Washington, D.C.

"A large majority of addicts began their drug-taking with marihuana. An intensive research project... found that of 1,759 narcotic addicts examined, 80 percent had used marihuana prior to their addiction."

Today, America may be "sleeping" while antisocial activity grows in intensity. Certainly this is true concerning the increasing problem of marihuana abuse.

Dozens of news clippings, editorials, and magazine articles in recent months have proclaimed the virtues of marihuana. But most writers fail to present a full and objective discussion of the other side of the coin — the side indicating marihuana abuse is harmful to the health, safety, and welfare of our society. If such writers give a complete distortion, they are indulging our communities in a very dangerous gamble.

By presenting only the pro-marihuana arguments, which sell copy, the public has been deprived of the real, vital, and objective facts necessary to make an intelligent choice about marihuana.

Law enforcement officers appear to be the sole voice in the wilderness warning that today's marihuana leads to an increase of all types of drug abuse rather than to its control. Law enforcement officers who defend society from the depredations of drug dependence have a responsibility to show to the people what is happening and correct errors and misconceptions about drug abuse.

There is nothing to prevent acceptance of this challenge, and this article will highlight points against marihuana. Marihuana is not only an extremely dangerous drug — it is a menace to public health, safety and welfare.

Most of the marihuana consumed in the United States is made up of the leaves and flowering tops of the marihuana plant. To a lesser extent, "hashish" is also being consumed by the users in the United States. But whether a person is using the so-called "Mexican type" marihuana or the more potent "hashish" the potential for abuse is ever present. The only difference is that a user of "hashish" need not smoke as much to reach the desired result.

Marihuana differs significantly from the drugs in the opium family in that it does not produce addiction of the morphine type. Abstinence does not produce a physiological withdrawal syndrome in the user. However, its use does result in a psychological dependence and, according to Dr. David P. Ausubel, chronic users go to great lengths to insure that they will not be without the drug. Deprivation may also result in "anxiety, restlessness, irritability or even a state of depression with suicidal fantasies, sometimes self-mutilating actions or actual suicidal attempts," which are all symptoms of a psychological withdrawal syndrome. For these reasons, marihuana is more often said to be habituating than addicting, although a recent investigator claims there is little difference from a psychiatric point of view.

No Medical Use

In the past, efforts to find a proper medical use for marihuana were not successful. As the American Medical Association's Committee on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence indicated, "marihuana has no known use in medical practice in most countries of the world, including the United States."

It is also interesting and significant that the United Nations 1961 single convention on narcotic drugs placed marihuana in a special category with narcotic drugs particularly liable to abuse and to produce ill effects and lacking offsetting therapeutic advantages possessed by less harmful drugs. The decision to include marihuana among other exceedingly dangerous substances was based upon the judgment of drug experts. This same convention established requirements whereby the United States maintains special measures of control over marihuana and prohibits "the production, manufacture, export and import of, trade in, possession or use of the drug except for amounts which may be necessary for medical and scientific research only."

The immediate physiological effects of marihuana intoxication include some loss in coordination of the limbs; an increase in pulse rate; an abnormal lowering of body temperature; an insatiable hunger; and inflammation of the mucous membranes and effects include fantasy; exhilaration of mood; the feeling of being above reality; loss of spatial sense; a loss of timing; and an often uncontrollable hilarity over something which is not particularly amusing to a normal person.

When larger doses are used, extremely vivid hallucinations often occur; there may be panic and an inordinate fear of death, illusions, and periods of paranoia. A high enough dose can result in a condition resembling toxic psychosis.

Psychotic Reaction

Marihuana's effects upon the operation of the central nervous system are most profound but have been the least explored by research. Little is known about the psychopharmacological aspects of marihuana, even though it has been one of the most widely used drugs in the world. However, there is still considerable literature revealing its effects are detrimental to the central nervous system. For example, Dr. Donald Louria, in his book Nightmare Drugs, states that marihuana may produce all of the hallucinogenic effects of which LSD is capable. Research conducted by Dr. Harris Isbell and associates on human beings using a natural occurring tetrahydrocannabinol of marihuana has led to the conclusion that a sufficient dosage of marihuana "can cause psychotic reaction in almost any individual."

As a result of these findings, marihuana has earned a reputation for inducing criminal behavior. Yet the manner in which marihuana causes or induces criminal behavior is not clear. It seems to vary with the individual, the dosage, and the circumstances, but a general survey of the literature indicates that marihuana may stimulate criminal conduct in any of the following ways: 1) Fortifying the courage of criminals prior to committing crimes; 2) causing general derangement and demoralization with chronic use; 3) lowering inhibitions and bringing out suppressed criminal tendencies; and 4) inducing panic, confusion, or anger in otherwise normal persons.

There are many studies which link criminal behavior with marihuana. One prominent team of researchers in India, where there has been a long and widespread abuse of marihuana in all of its potent forms, concluded that "excessive indulgence in cannabis is apt to produce in healthy individuals, and more so in susceptible individuals, mental confusion which may lead to delusions with restlessness and disordered movements. Intellectual impairment as well as disorientation may show itself in various ways, such as weakening of moral sense, habit of telling lies, prostitution, theft, pilfering, sex perversion, and other degrading practices. Sometimes indulgence may release subconscious impulses and lead to violent crimes."

Conducive to Violence

Earlier studies during 1939 in New Orleans disclosed that the number of marihuana users among major criminals was unusually high. Even the LaGuardia report of 1944, which is often cited in support of the harmlessness of marihuana, found that in a number of test subjects "... there were alterations in behavior giving rise to antisocial expression. This was shown by unconventional acts not permitted in public, anxiety reactions, oppositions, antagonism and eroticism. Effects such as these would be considered conducive to acts of violence." The conclusion of this study indicated that with "... the potential make-up and the right time and environment, marihuana may bring on a true psychotic state."

Another significant investigation conducted by Professor C. G. Gardikas, chief of Greece's Criminal Services, analyzed a group of 279 hashish-smoking criminals. He found that 117 of these became criminally inclined only after their habituation to hashish. Within the group there were more than 420 sentences for assaults, woundings, threats, robberies, manslaughter, and sex offenses.

Marihuana and Crime

The Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs recently conducted its own study. It revealed a definite pattern between marihuana usage and crime. City and State police agencies were surveyed to gather and assemble a volume of well-documented instances where criminal behavior was directly related to the use of marihuana. Several of the more poignant examples from this study are:

Seattle, Wash. — A man accidentally bumped into and spilled coffee on another at the old World's Fair grounds. The jostled person began swearing at the man who had bumped into him. He pulled out a piece of log chain and began to beat the man. Officers found the suspect in possession of and under the influence of marihuana when he was arrested for assault.

Detroit, Mich. — A 19-year-old man was arrested for murdering his 3-month-old daughter. His wife told homicide detectives her husband was a constant marihuana user and had been under its influence when he beat their infant daughter to death using his hands.

San Antonio, Tex. — After smoking marihuana for several hours, two defendants decided to settle an argument with a mutual acquaintance. They pistol whipped, beat, stabbed, and finally shot and killed the other man. Police later learned the two murderers smoked marihuana until they became "vicious" and then, immediately, went to "beat" the man.

San Jose, Calif. — During an armed robbery two teenagers, aged 15 and 17, shot the owner of a beverage shop to death. After they were arrested, the two juveniles admitted they had used marihuana before committing the robbery.

It is perfectly clear that the more people experimenting with marihuana, the greater the danger that many will not be able to handle the habit. They will associate with subcultures involved in all types of drug abuse, barbiturates, amphetamines, LSD, and even heroin. Thus, if the apparent increase in marihuana abuse continues unabated, there will be a sharp rise in the incidence of narcotic addiction.

Of course, not everyone who smokes a marihuana cigarette will become a heroin addict. But actual experience leaves little room for doubt that a large majority of addicts first began with marihuana. This pattern of graduation has been observed in the United States, the Near East and Africa, though admittedly the exact causal connection is unknown.

Addicts Studied

A recent review of this subject was made by a noted psychiatrist, who studied 80

English heroin addicts. He found that all 80 had first used marihuana and apparently considered its effects second only to those of heroin. In studying these patients, the doctor was led to the conclusion that the connection between marihuana and heroin could not be accounted for simply on the basis of the "mutual influence of availability in illegal society..."

In an intensive research project conducted by Dr. John C. Ball, chief sociologist of the United States Clinical Research Center in Lexington, Ky., it was found that of 1,759 narcotic addicts examined, 80 percent had used marihuana prior to their addiction.

To many people, the thought of a large portion of our younger generation "turning on," "tuning in," and, finally, "dropping out" is a frightening one. There is no doubt that marihuana can offer some individuals transitory pleasures. But in a world beset with problems, we need the contribution of all because the United States cannot afford to have its greatest resource — youth — dropping into a state of oblivion.

The American Medical Association adroitly summarized the position responsible citizens must take in this crisis. In its August 1968 publication, a commonsense statement about the dangers of marihuana concluded: "Only an aroused and concerned public can create, mobilize, and implement resources to deal adequately with a problem of drug dependence in all its forms. The proper stimulus must come from citizens who are community leaders aware of those needs and from professionals who apply themselves to those needs."

"Frank and forceful public discussions, focusing on the futility and inherent dangers in experimenting with drugs such as marihuana and the consequence of any subsequent psychological dependence, can act as deterrents."

"Marihuana is centuries old, but it represents a constant danger. The responsibilities of the citizen, including the physician, are clearly defined. The time to begin is now."

The challenge referred to must be met by all law enforcement officers.

Service Center Aide Resigns For Parish Job

Mrs. Beatrice Davidson, two-year veteran of the Linda Vista Neighborhood Service Center as a neighborhood aide, is leaving her position at the center to work as a parish visitor for the Presbyterian Churches in San Diego.

Mrs. Davidson will be working out of Northminster Church in North Clairemont. Her new job will start Dec. 1, and the old one will terminate Friday.

Mrs. Davidson has been a resident of 2542 Comstock since 1943. In her new job, she will be working primarily with military personnel. "I really hate to leave the center. I'm one of the oldest staff members here, and we've nursed this along and watched it grow," she said.

Mrs. Davidson has been with the center since September of 1966.

Free Diabetes Tests Given To 3,440 People

A total of 3,440 persons took free diabetes tests at seven locations throughout the county Sunday, the opening day of National Diabetes Week.

Preliminary screening showed 175 tests to be positive, according to Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Forquer, co-chairmen for the detection campaign. Final tests, normally, are expected to show about five per cent of the total number of tests to indicate active diabetes.

The Forquers said that blood and urine tests were given by volunteer physicians and laboratory technologists. Dr. Thomas Lambert, of the diabetes division of Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation, said a positive reaction does not necessarily mean a diabetic condition, but he urged those with a positive showing to seek additional testing.

"Diabetes may strike anyone and since early detection is important to its control, we are striving to reach those who may have diabetes and not know it," said Dr. James Norton of the Palmer Laboratory and medical advisor to the clinics.

Diabetes association officials said they are especially interested in testing persons who are more than 40 years of age, overweight, and with a family history of diabetes.

Two additional clinics are scheduled for those who may not have been able to take advantage of last Sunday's testing program. One is scheduled at Lincoln Junior High School Cafeteria at 150 Escondido Ave. in Vista on Nov. 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. A second clinic will be available on Sunday, Dec. 1, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 5150 Wilson St., in La Mesa.

Those taking the screen tests are advised to eat a high carbohydrate meal of primarily sugars and starches two hours before reporting to the centers, Dr. Norton advised.

The program is co-sponsored by the San Diego Chapter, Diabetes Association of Southern California, and the Medical Society. The detection centers are one phase of the education, detection, and research program carried out by the association.

Procedures For Registering Guns Explained

Detailed procedures for registering machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, sawed-off rifle, silencer, deactivated war trophy and other destructive devices were announced today by F. S. Schmidt, District Director of Internal Revenue.

The Gun Control Act of 1968 requires that weapons and devices of this type must be registered with the Internal Revenue Service by Dec. 1.

Schmidt said that copies of registration Form 4467 are available at Alcohol & Tobacco Tax and other IRS Offices.

The forms are prepared in three copies, two of which should be mailed to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington D.C. 20224. The third copy may be kept by the owner of the firearm or destructive device.

Firearms or destructive devices should not be brought to an IRS Office to be registered, Mr. Schmidt said.

Under the new law all firearms and destructive devices requiring registration must be identified by a serial number. If a firearm or device does not have a serial number, the owner should phone, visit, or write the nearest IRS Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Office and a number will be assigned.

After obtaining the number, the owner is responsible for affixing it to the firearm or device before completing the registration form. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the nearest Alcohol and Tobacco Tax or other IRS Office.

WHAT'S DOING?

If you know somebody whose physical handicap has kept him from using the phone, maybe we can help. We have special equipment for handicapped persons. For instance, a person who's paralyzed and can't hold a receiver can easily use our regular speakerphone or possibly an operator type headset. A telephone volume control is available for people who have impaired hearing. There are also loud bells, chimes, horns and lights to announce phone calls that otherwise might be missed. For individuals with weak voices, we have phones that amplify.

We believe that telephone service is for everybody. Give us a call at our Business Office; we'll do our best to see about adapting a phone to meet special needs.

Bye, Bye, Buggy

The National Auto Theft Bureau reports over 650,000 cars are stolen yearly. And the number is increasing. Their records show 80% of the cars stolen were left with doors unlocked. And 40% were left with the keys in the ignition. The real tragedy: teenagers, acting on the spur-of-the-moment temptation stole 60% of the cars.

To help solve the problem, the Bureau recommends these steps: Take your keys out when you leave your car. Close all windows. Lock valuables in the trunk. Don't part in deserted or dark places. And lock your doors.

If your car is stolen in spite of these precautions, have a list of its important numbers handy (the vehicle identification number, also called serial number, for example). It'll make it easier for police to trace and identify your car.

It's time to bring out the turkey and cranberry sauce again. And all of us wish you a very happy Thanksgiving!
